

CHAPTER 5

LOVE : THE ATTRACTION

“Whatever you hold in your mind consistently exactly same you will experience in life.”

-ANTHOMY ROBBINS

The attraction is simply attachment with something just observing its outlook, virtue, expression and other gesture which can attract someone.

Basically as per observation and practical experience it is found that love have three forms

- Real love
- Love as attraction
- Love for short term pleasure

Let us talk about every part one by one.

REAL LOVE

What is real love? During love one is deeply interconnected to others by hearts instead of concentrating at the charming looks and beauty. One got to fall in love with others and they become closer as time passes.

If the question arises will they forget each other due some adverse circumstances and family problems whatsoever be the case?

Yes, it can be possible to forget each other at some extents due to family pressure, but what about the memories which compel both to meet. What about the emotions, feelings, and deep understanding creates between two. Real love can be possible between father-daughter, mother-son, brother-sister, friends, couple because here one cannot show any cleverness, interest, and personal profit, expectation from second, they just try to make each other happy.

LOVE AS ATTRACTION

Now let us talk about love as an attraction if we talk about this aspect of love, it is mostly experienced by the teenager like school and college students. Where simply students got attracted by beauty, gorgeous look, dressing style, etc. Just to achieve their sexual desire. At this stage, teenagers forgot their long term goals for their short term pleasure and committed such mistakes that destroy their future/career. Due to this little bit of attraction guys and girls did unexpected things before the right time.

THE MELANGE OF SUCCESS

If you are away from your parents, quite friendly to teachers and friends to come out from such unnecessary “love as an attraction”. Because God sent you on earth to achieve every pleasure of life at a particular time so wait for the right time. This attraction give you nothing else than that of time pass, wastage of money and time, so stop wandering here and there aimlessly.

It is a temporary enjoyment which achieves in the small and short effort but may result in the permanent spoil of the future.

LOVE FOR SHORT TERM PLEASURE

Thirdly I talk about the “Love as pleasure” at the time of childhood we enjoy life from 5-14 years and loves our parents, brother and sister. Without knowing values and morals, we always ready for playing and enjoying life.

But today the scenario is different, teenagers during their school and college time instead of focusing on study searching for short term pleasure by indulging in the new fashion of girlfriend/boyfriend.

Sometimes they think so deeply to gain this short term pleasure, such that when they come to know, what they have done is extremely wrong and not fair at all. In such a situation being teenager they faces a lack of motivation, experience and when they ask their soul what they did is right.

They confess and feel themselves as guilty. And take some serious step which give lifetime pain for their family. There is no need to give up and quit from life. Because if there is a problem there will be a solution “there is no lock without key”.

Do sometimes many people give an example of Lord Krishna who has 16,008 female friends (called Sakhi) why not today we have one girlfriend?

My dear friends, it is very clear that he was the Lord in the form of man and he always works in the welfare of society and that was the past story of Duapar-Yug. But we are living in an era of Kal-Yug.

Never think about such foolish questions about why they have more than one wife. If he has, why not we?

Because they had their name in history as a LORD and we are still waiting just to become a known personality in our city, school, and college.

There are some points that basically enlightened our internal soul and gives us a platform to return back on a good path.

- All the subjective knowledge of universe be achieved and gain by books like mathematics and physics but the internal revolt which arises for love from heart can only be understood by experiences. Other can show you different path of success but decision is yours.
- Parents must be care about different stages of life of their children’s, in first 5-6 years of a child, he should be full of love as much a possible next period at age of 7-14 there must be high security and discipline and during further life treat with their children like best friends.

THE MELANGE OF SUCCESS

- When you are in temporary love you got some great pleasure and happiness and feel like that no-one else in this universe, experience such moments but it is normal for every person who got such experience of love first time.
- There is nothing like love, just it is attraction which every male have for a female, it is a universal truth. If this attraction decrease you might be depressed by your friends but definitely it will enlighten your future.
- Three truth which are un-comparable in universe:
 1. "Spiritual Knowledge" gives you best pleasure of world.
 2. No other enemy can a person have than that of "physical attraction".
 3. "Sexual desire" which obstruct you from making "unbiased judgement".
- Love as attraction is simple thing for the normal people of society who are aimless but those who have big dreams and wants to do something different from other these are small tempting waits which attracts you and plays vital role in life. Because it is not easy to become Doctor(AIIMS), engineer (IIT), DM(District magistrate) for achieving such dream definitely you must have to lose some pleasure of life. Now depends on you weather you want to lose short term pleasure or achieve your dreams.
- When a person deeply fall in love and attraction he/she spoil dreams of life simply by Domestic Un-consciousness (Naitik Nasha or Madakta). When person attracted towards someone to whom he love, during this time for him, life of others becomes meaningless, mind become corrupted, every false thought become true and start dreaming with open eyes.
- According to fact that a woman have 2 times hunger, 4 times shy in nature, 8 times sexual desire than that of man. Even you can know women from so many years, but no one can understand the woman internal psychology, you cannot expect when she changes her mind set (as average).
- No one have such freedom as that of women. Try to understand psychology of everyone never believe someone at instant first spent some time, try to know them then believe on them.
- Many people said due to emotional love which is concern to their relatives, they feel lack of their parents, feel them missing but as per the age passes sincerity also rises within a person.
- It is necessary for a successful person to become strong not only externally but also internally because at internal love emotion generates for heart which difficult to control. So to keep yourself busy think at big level and work for welfare of society.

EFFECT OF RELATIONSHIP ON LIFE AND WIFE

Sometimes during a relationship for a long time, we love each other by heart but the time comes when we have to decide our future and choose either one of options:

To get married:-

Let us illustrate, in a deep love we forgot the person's status, character, personality and do not think whether he/she deserves you or not. This love is not only lust but also a mistake which destroy your future by marrying him and ultimately you become a wife/husband of one who does not deserve you. Just suppose if an MBA or engineering girl married to the auto driver, Riksha driver?

THE MELANGE OF SUCCESS

Is it love? Definitely, it shows lack the sense of humor and such a couple will imbalances with through the process of each other. Life is very beautiful so do not misjudge its beauty.

Break up in relationships:

After a long time in a relationship, we want to break up due to some reason like family objection, even though we love each other but finally consequences are to stop talking to each other.

On the other hand, if one person ditches others, then it is better to stop talking instead of wasting time in taking revenge on each other. Such feeling only destroys both of you and obstruct your progress, so is it better to look for a bright future, and restart your new journey of life, ultimately be happy with, that you have. Forget everything and focus your mind and goodwill to become successful.

Ultimately thing is simple, teenager forgets the outcomes and destroys their dreams by making single decisions in few seconds without thinking about the consequences of the pleasure, what they get for small time. But for the successful person, it is necessary that their body must move according to their mindset and mind should not work out according to body.

A teenager must follow concept of “goal statement” instead of “girl statement”. But they prefer a “girl statement” which will act as a disaster for their coming future. So be sincere and focus on your “goal statement”. Try to understand this principle of life and secret success.
